

Chartwell Attorney Appointed to Board of Montgomery County Community College Foundation

January 13, 2011, Valley Forge, Pa. - Carol A. Crisci, Esquire, an attorney with the Chartwell Law Offices LLP, in its Valley Forge Office, was appointed to the Montgomery County Community College Foundation Board.

Ms. Crisci concentrates her practice in workers' compensation and appellate practice, in a variety of administrative law and civil matters, before the higher courts of the Commonwealth. She has more than 15 years of appellate practice experience and started her legal career working for The Superior Court of Pennsylvania. Prior to her legal career, Carol worked as a chemist and in the finance department of McNeil Consumer Products, a division of Johnson & Johnson.

She is actively involved with the Montgomery County and Pennsylvania Bar Associations, is a member of the Board of Directors of the Greater Philadelphia PGA Junior Golf Association and the College's Leading Women Golf Committee.

"I am honored to serve on the Board of the Foundation and hope to assist Montgomery County Community College in providing continued excellent educational programs to our community, particularly in these challenging times," said Ms. Crisci.

Chartwell has offices throughout Pennsylvania and in New York, New Jersey, Delaware and Florida.
