

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
June 10, 2008 11:00 a.m.
Philadelphia, PA

The Chartwell Law Offices, LLP, Among the Fastest Growing Firms in Pennsylvania, Adds Insurance Coverage, Subrogation Practice Group

The Chartwell Law Offices, LLP, announced today that it has added seven attorneys from the Conshohocken, PA firm of Troy MacBride Veith LLC, and has added veteran Pittsburgh insurance litigator Nick Pasciullo. Chartwell, headquartered in Valley Forge PA, is now among the 100 largest firms in Pennsylvania with 45 lawyers practicing out of offices in Valley Forge, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Harrisburg and Scranton.

The move expands Chartwell's insurance and defense litigation practice and adds property insurance coverage, bad faith litigation and subrogation to its practice mix. Earlier this year, with the addition of former Harvey Pennington attorneys John Winter, Bob Murtaugh and Ron Woodman, Chartwell expanded into creditor's rights, commercial litigation and bankruptcy work.

The new Property Insurance and Subrogation Practice is led by Chris Troy, former Chair of the American Bar Association's Property Insurance Law Committee. Before founding the Troy MacBride firm, Mr. Troy was a partner at Rogut McCarthy Troy LLC and Hecker Brown Sherry and Johnson. Nick Pasciullo, former manager of the White and Williams Pittsburgh office, will join Chartwell as the Director of the Complex Property Insurance Practice.

"When Chartwell sees the opportunity to add good people with complimentary practices, and it makes business sense to do so, we strive to enhance the reach of our firm and the breadth of services that we can provide to our clients", said Cliff Goldstein, CEO of Chartwell. "Our future growth is not controlled by any arbitrary limit on the number of lawyers. We pride ourselves on seeking out and retaining solid people with good business judgment", Goldstein added.

Chartwell opened in 2002 with four lawyers. The firm was named for the Kent, England estate of Sir Winston Churchill. The Chartwell Law Offices chose this tangible reminder of the legacy of Sir Winston Churchill to symbolize the firm's fundamental commitment of providing clients with well-reasoned advice, zealous representation and cheerful goodwill, while engaging colleagues in the legal community with honor, respect, humor, and integrity.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT CLIFF GOLDSTEIN, CEO, THE CHARTWELL LAW OFFICES, LLP 610 666 8425, cgoldstein@chartwelllaw.com